#kuratorischepraxis ist ein fortlaufende Veranstaltungsreihe, die von Nora Bräuniger (künstlerische Leitung, Kunstverein Hildesheim) und Tim McGovern (Kuratorische Praxis und Kunstvermittlung, Universität Hildesheim) initiiert wurde und sich in unterschiedlichen Formaten Fragen und Themen rund um die kuratorische Praxis widmet.

#kuratorischepraxis is an ongoing series of events initiated by Nora Bräuniger (artistic director, Kunstverein Hildesheim) and Fiona McGovern (Ass. Prof for Curatorial Practice and Art Mediation, University of Hildesheim) and dedicated to questions and topics around curatorial practice in different formats.

KÖRPERPOLITIKEN IM AUSSTELLUNGSKONTEXT / BODY POLITICS IN THE EXHIBITION CONTEXT

Diskussionen, kuratierte Vorträge, Screenings, Performances und Workshops discussions, kuratierte lectures, screenings, performances und workshops

mit/with CLÉMENTINE DELISS, ANTJE GÉRA, FANNY HAUSER, VIKTOR NEUMANN, ALICE PERAGINE, KAITLYN SIAN TAN, LUKE WILLIS THOMPSON, ALICE WILKE UND EMMA WOLF-HAUGH

Körperpolitiken im Ausstellungskontext entstand in engem Zusammenarbeit mit Hanne König und wird im Kooperation mit dem DFG-Graduiertenkolleg 2307 Ästhetische Praxis sowie mit dem Seminar „Where does my body belong? From institutional critique to infrastructural transformation" von Ruth Buchanan durchgeführt.

Body Politics in the Exhibition Context was developed in close collaboration with Hanne König and is realised in co-operation with the DFG Research Training Group 2307 „Aesthetic Practice as well as the seminar "Where does my body belong? From institutional critique to infrastructural transformation" led by Ruth Buchanan.

https://kuratorischepraxis.kunstverein-hildesheim.de/projekt/kuratorischepraxis/

https://www.kunstverein-hildesheim.de/projekt/koerperpolitiken-im-ausstellungskontext/

APRIL — SEPTEMBER 2021 / APRIL — SEPTEMBER 2021

7. April	19 Uhr	doing body politics – Körperpolitiken zwischen Kunst ÜBer Aktivismus Podium mit Antje Gera, Hanne König, Kaitlyn Sian Tan Gespräch mit Antje Gera und Hanne König
May 11th	10 am – 12 pm	Curating Metabolic Infrastructures Lecture by Clémentine Deliss
May 14th	6 pm	Domestic Optimism Video screening and artist talk with Emma Wolf-Haugh
May 15th	12 – 2 pm	The Lazerbeam Theirstory Projects – Conjuring the post-pandemic collapse of capitalism and the propositional reclamation of queer, working class, architectural history Workshop with Emma Wolf-Haugh
May 19th	19 Uhr – 21 Uhr	Hysterical Strength Panel with Luke Willis Thompson

MAY 18TH, 10 AM – 12 PM

HYSTERICAL STRENGTH

ARTIST TALK BY LUKE WILLIS THOMPSON
MODERATION: RUTH BUCHANAN

ARTIST TALK

This event will take place as a video conference and held in English.

Please register by May 17th.
kuratorischepraxis@kunstverein-hildesheim.de

Please also use this email address for general inquiries and questions regarding access.

Luke Willis Thompson (b. Tauranga, NZ) lives and works between Auckland and New York. He has had solo exhibitions at the Museum of Modern Art, New York (2019); Kunsthaus Bregenz (2019); Serpentine Galleries, London (2018); Hamburger Bahnhof, Berlin (2018); Museum of Contemporary Art, Chicago (2018); Tramway, Glasgow (2018); Chisenhale Gallery, London (2017); and Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tāmaki (2017). He represented New Zealand at the 57th Venice Biennale (2017), curated by Natasha Conland.

Ruth Buchanan is an artist and curator. She has exhibited internationally, including at Tramway, Glasgow; Kunsthalle Basel; Kunsthalle Wien; Kunsthalle Lissabon; Kunsthalle Bern; Kunsthalle Mannheim; Kunsthalle Mulhouse; Kunsthalle Zürich; Kunsthalle Nürnberg; Kunsthalle Winterthur; Kunsthalle Fridericianum, Kassel; Kunsthalle Bielefeld; Kunsthalle Baden-Baden; Kunsthalle Wilhelmshaven; Kunsthalle Recklinghausen; Kunsthalle Darmstadt; Kunsthalle Düsseldorf; Kunsthalle Osnabrück; Kunsthalle Göppingen; Kunsthalle Wien; Kunsthalle Exnergasse, Vienna